

L.E.A.D. Special Education Advocacy for parents & educators

Leadership • Education • Advocacy • Development

BE AN EMPOWERED PARENT. EDUCATED. ENGAGED. EFFECTIVE.

The Council on Developmental Disabilities offers the LEAD (Leadership Education & Advocacy Development) training program for parents, advocates or anyone with an interest in serving people with disabilities and their families. This program teaches you:

- How to exercise your rights under the law
- IEP process/ARC mtgs
- Advocacy strategies

LEAD encourages and supports families, schools and communities to enable successful educational outcomes and the best quality of life for kids with disabilities.

Space is limited. Reserve your spot today!
